

Language Identification

Show the non-English speaking client this list of the 27 most requested languages.

The message they will read is:

➤ English

Point to your language and an interpreter will be provided to you at no cost.

If the client does not recognize any of these languages, call the Pacific Interpreters Call Center and request assistance in identifying the language.

Always provide your Access Code when using our service.

Pacific Interpreters Language Interpretation Service

Interpretation is available in more than 180 languages, 24 hours a day and 365 days a year. With telephone-based interpretation, you will be connected to an interpreter in less than 30 seconds.

Tips for working with an interpreter

- Greet the interpreter, then focus on the client
- Avoid using jargon, slang, technical terms, or complicated sentences
- Speak at an even pace, pausing to allow interpretation
- The interpreter may have to create word pictures for terms you use and this may take time
- The interpreter may point out cultural misunderstandings that can arise
- You are in control of the encounter and may redirect the interpreter any time you feel it is necessary
